

FAQ's about the UNTAPPED Award

Q) Do you have to commit to performing at the entire run of the Edinburgh Festival 2018?

A) Yes, this award is open to ensembles who wish to perform for the four weeks of the festival from the 1 – 27 August.

Q) Can we apply if we cannot make the shortlist showcase performance dates in February?

A) No. Unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate showcases on other dates, and for this award are unable to travel across the country to see work being performed.

Q) We are a comedy troupe, can we apply?

A) No. This award is open to Theatre Ensembles only.

Q) What do you mean by ensemble?

A) An ensemble is a group of artists who work together to create a performance. For this award, we are looking for groups with at least three people in the company and at least two performers on stage.

Q) Our show has been to The Edinburgh Festival before, are we eligible to apply?

A) No.

Q) We won't have a finished show by the end of February for the shortlist showcases, is that a problem?

A) No. We just want to see a taste of your work and a short extract which will indicate the quality and direction of the performance.

Q) When will we hear if we have been shortlisted?

A) All shortlisted companies will be contacted by Monday 5 February.

Q) If we miss the deadline are we able to email our application to you?

A) No. All applications must be received by midnight on Sunday 28 January via the online portal.

Q) We cannot commit to performing at New Diorama in October for the showcase week allocated, can we still apply?

A) Yes, we are open to negotiation around these dates.
